Greetings Fontaine

What a wonderful Warders 2008. Everyone who worked hard to put this event together deserves more Huzzahs' than fill this page.

I am proud to be a part of such a wonderful group of people who always pull together and put on Incredible Events and treat everyone as if they are family (even when they aren't from our Barony).

Now that Warders is in the History Books, we need to look forward.

THL Angus has taken charge of the Event List in preparation for Ren Faire in October. He has done a marvelous job with the City as our liaison. I know he will need assistance with getting everything put together for our village. Please assist him in any way you can.

After Ren Fair, we will be gearing up for Fontaine Toy Box in November. Lady Anna Katherine and Chidira will be putting this together. They will have more to come in the future.

12th Night Celebration will be in January. No bids have been received. We need to get this bid awarded and on the Kingdom Calendar and in the OH. So, if you are at all interested in bidding for this event, please get them submitted. If you have questions, please feel free to contact me and I will assist in any way I can.

Then after 12th Night will be WAR!!!! Time sure does fly when you are having fun.

An officer's term is generally 2 years. It takes 6 months to a year to train a deputy to be able to step in and take over the office. Serving as an officer for Fontaine is an honor and gives you an opportunity to experience what it really takes to keep a Barony going. If you are at all interested in any of the offices, please talk to the Officer, Their Excellencies, or myself and we will be happy to answer your questions.

Once again, thanks to everyone for all the hard work you do.

Greetings Unto All-

It is with great excitement that I announce that our Azure Warder has remained in Fontaine! Lord Raphael de Sepultura is now the only person to have ever held the honored position more than once. Huzzah to you, my friend!!!

It should come to no big surprise that the new Captain of the Golden Paws is Gatlan de Sepultura. For those of you who didn't have the pleasure of watching the tournament that led to this outcome, then you truly missed out. I have played this game for many a year and I don't believe I have ever seen more skill in a single tournament. Simply phenomenal.

Also at Warders, I had the pleasure of watching Master Duncan, Lord Caelan, and Lady Natasha emerge victorious from a three-man melee that was quite a site to behold. Huzzah to the three of you!

On a completely unrelated note, as tournament season begins winding down; we will slowly begin transitioning into the War season. When you come to practice, bring your secondaries and come prepared to train! Fontaine is a force to be reckoned with at War and the only way it will remain that way is if we practice!

I'll see you out there!

In service to the Barony,

THL Angus Reid MacFarlane
Baronial Rapier Marshal
Fontaine dans Sable

Rafael de Sepultura, Captain of the Golden Paws, faces THL Angus

Greetings to the Populace of Fontaine!

Wasn't Warders great.... If you missed this event, you missed out on fun, fighting, good food, and great meetings with old friends and, of course I must mention the rainstorms.

The Warder Tournaments were well fought and every Warder Defender is from Fontaine! Huzzah! The Sable Warder (Heavy fighter) is Lord Hammar winning in a field of 11 fighters.

The Azure Warder (Rapier fighter) is Lord Raphael winning in a field of 7 fighters.

The Argent Warder is Lord Anthony winning in a field of 15 archers.

The Vert Warder is Lady Louie whose card weaving won in a field of 9 entries.

I would like to thank Avalyn for her assistance in the List Tent. Having just taken on the duties as Deputy AOL a week prior to Warders, Avalyn ran the list for both the Argent Warder competition and the Golden Patus Captains tournament. I look forward to her assistance at all our fighting events upcoming.

Also during Warders, the Southern Preliminary Bardic was held and won by Willow of al-Barran. We will miss having our own Lord Geoffrey as the Windover Bard, but look forward to the next competition. After the Windover competition, the bardic was open to all, and our very own Leonardo was very impressive presenting original music on his guitar tuned as a lute. Leonardo promised to return to the bardic competition next year, and I look forward to that time, as he is very talented.

On a different note, we will be having tournaments in the Park on Sunday, September 28th. Our park tourneys are great experience in various forms of fighting and wonderful events to watch.

Also upcoming the third week of October is the Farmington Renaissance Faire. Look elsewhere for information on the Faire in this newsletter and online in the List, or just contact His Lordship Angus. We need lots of help; lots of fighters, and lots of people to just mingle with everyone at the Faire and tell them of our favorite hobby.

Everyone that helped at the San Juan County Fair now has experience in explaining what we do - we need you at the Faire! And, my thanks go out to all that helped in the booth and at the demo for the Fair.

We will soon have a new Croton Prince and Princess. If you are able to travel to Croton Tournament this month, please do so. Coronation will be in November and always an enjoyable event to attend.

Speaking of upcoming events, Estrella War is just a very short time away. Estrella begins on February 9th, and if you look at the calendar - that is less than 6 months away (150-some days). We have lots of events and fun times to experience prior to Estrella, but Be Prepared! Plan on attending this Winter War, to once again let our neighboring kingdoms feel the sting of the Outlands Fighters. Attend our fighter practices, attend the War Practices that will now be held at each event this fall, sharpen your blades, shine your armor and be ready!

In Service to the Dream,

Lady Elyenora Dangel de la Roche,
Chatelaine and Mistress of the List

Emeline l'Espicier
What awards and Titles do you carry?
Award of Arms
Order of the sands

What do you do in the SCA?
Archery, spinning, weaving, I am a student to Master J Balthazar Tegero,

What defining moment let you know that the SCA was for you?

Strangely, it had very little to do with the SCA
I was talking with someone about welding. And we got into a discussion about fire pits, and he said I should go to an SCA event. . So we both looked online, and found that Rio was having a new comers event the next day.

And i knew that if a perfect stranger would go out of his way to make sure i found an event close by so i could go and meet them, then, it probably was the type place i would wish to be.

What is one of your favorite memories of the SCA?

I have two.

Having Their Excellencies of Fontaine, "arrange" it so I could be behind them during court at coronation, and being called up for my AoA...

And Warders, when I took Balthazars belt. And managed somehow not to be able to speak after that.

How do you balance mundane life and the SCA?

I just do, both are the same for me. Very little I do mundanely any more is not somehow related to the SCA.

What piece of advice would you give to a newcomer?

Learn, try anything that interests you. Wait. Don't over extend yourself.
But learn, anything and everything that excites you. Get that excitement going. Keep it going, but temper it with your knowledge of yourself

April and Elizabeth

-The Honorable Lord Angus Reid MacFarlane

If of a greatly disease ridden mind,-
If of a forked and greatly sharpened tongue,
And with her voice that should never have sung!
I could search long, but could not hope to find
Even a single word that would be kind.
Myself from her I most forcibly flung!
For the rest of my life I have begun
And started at last when she crossed the line.
Elizabeth did claim my heart's remains
That April's hand so forcibly destroyed
New life began and it has been sustained
By a hand that nurtures and has not toyed
A lady for whom my heart beats once more and whose kind love does give me wings that soar!

The Rapier s Cut: Bolognese Swordsmanship

-THL Angus Reid MacFarlane

Within the realm of the Italian Schools of Rapier is Bolognese Swordsmanship, known also as the Dardi School. Lippo Bartolomeo Dardi is the period fencing master (as well as a mathematician, astronomer, and University professor) from whom this school took its name. While no manuscript of Dardi survives, his teachings had a great impact on later fencing masters such as Antonio Manciolino, Giovanni dall Agocchie, and perhaps most famously, Achille Marozzo (all three of which came out of the Dardi school). The reason that the Dardi School is often referred to as Bolognese Swordsmanship is simply because of the school s locale, which is, you guessed it, Bologna, the capital city of the Emilia-Romagna region of Italy.

The school itself, at least in general, focuses equally on a cutting and thrusting style. It teaches the use of the single-handed sword, both alone and with several defensive and offensive secondaries, including the small round buckler, the square targa, the larger rotella, the cloak, and dagger. In addition, it teaches the two-handed sword, spadone, and pole arms.

The single-handed sword used in the Bolognese style range from the military-style broadsword to the rapier proper.
