Benefiting Blue Star
Mothers

Come one, come all to our Toy Box event, benefiting the Blue Star Mothers in San Juan County. The Blue Star
Mothers are the moms of sons and daughters currently serving in the military.

On November 22 we will have tournaments and competitions to raise money and donations for the Mothers. They make sure that our service members get care packages of needed items, a proper welcome home, and Christmas gifts too. They are not funded by the government or any donation agency. The items they need are listed on the Fontaine web site at <http://www.fontainesca.org/toybox/>

There will be two tournaments. The light tournament is Protector of the Children and the heavy tournament is Defender of the Children.

There will also be a dessert competition for those of you who don't fight. Get out your best recipe for a "Fruity Cookie" and whip up a batch. The children are encouraged to enter this competition

P.S. STAND READY...RUMORS OF WAR ARE AFOOT

Greetings Unto the Glorious Populace of Fontaine!

It is not often that I find reason to submit an article for our newsletter. However, given the recent activity, and other events to come, I feel the need.

Let me begin by saying that we recently were able to acquire a very nice supply of rattan. I know this is something that many of our fighters have needed. Due to the tireless and amazing efforts of Their Excellencies in negotiating with the merchants who previously owned these items, we are able to offer these to you for $22 each. If you are interested in acquiring some of these fine wares for your very own, please contact His Excellency or myself and we would be more than happy to make it happen.

At this time the books for Warders of the Western Gate are closed. It is my privilege to announce that even with the unforeseen circumstances of weather and low attendance we were able to make a profit of $91.90. Although this amount may seem trivial, there were moments where I was worried that we would not even come out even. Thank you to all who participated in making it the great event that it was.

Most recently, we participated in the Farmington Renaissance Faire. My gracious thanks go to all who came out to lend a hand with this event. We were able to find several kindred souls whom are now going to be participating with us. Please welcome them to our Barony, and consequently, to our family.

Additionally, we did fund raising for Blue Star Mothers, our selected charity this year for our annual fund raising drive, Toy Box. On Saturday, we auctioned off the Heavy Fighters. We also sacrificed Angus the Angry and Erik the Red to the resounding blows of many children whom were happy to participate in Fight-A-Knight. Sunday, we auctioned off the Light fighters. Due to the tireless efforts of those whom participated on the fields and their giving consorts we were able to raise $404 for Blue Star Mothers.

Coming up, we have Fontaine's Toy Box. It will be held on Nov. 22 from 10 am to 5pm at Minimum Park in Aztec. Please join us for a day of fighting and feasting to help raise funds for Blue Star Mothers and our troops overseas. For more information, please visit the website at <http://www.fontainesca.org/toybox/>. I look forward to seeing you all there!

Finally, I would like to announce that I will be hosting the November installation of Tournéy's in the Park. Most likely we will be at our winter site but then. Although the tournéys will no longer be held "in the Park", they will continue. Although I do not have all of the conventions set as of yet, the Tournéy will be double daggers. I beg of you to be prepared by having your daggers when you arrive on November 16th.

Minium Park

Site Open: 11am Closes: 3pm

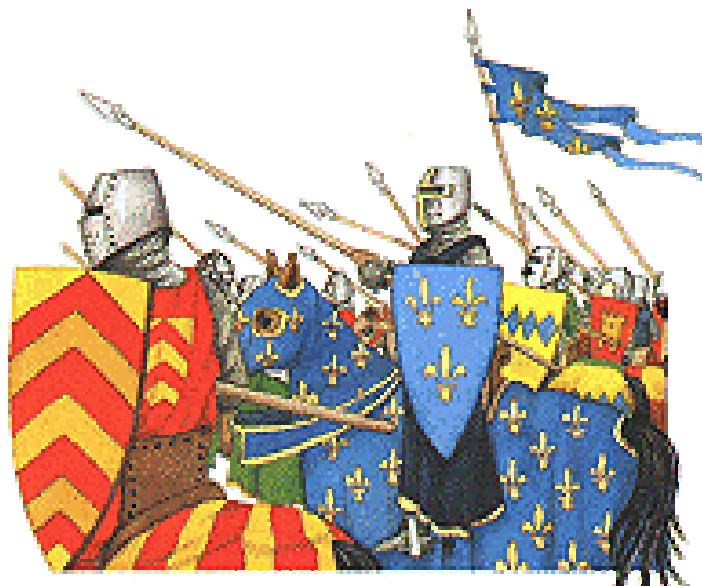

War is upon us. Come join us for WAR Practice. Lunch will be served.

VIVE FONTAINE!!

I call unto all heavy fighters! The time for WAR is nearly upon us and the turn out at practices is down! His Excellency and I will fight the entire opposing army by ourselves if we must!, but as glorious as that death may sound, it would be thrice that glorious to be victorious beside our friends and comrades. I beg of you, sharpen you swords and don your armor, for the time to shed the blood of our enemies is at hand. I make this promise to you, that I will be the first in armor and the last one out at every practice until WAR if you but only show up and fight! There is much to be learned before battle wages. That goes for veterans and new fighters alike. If you know you are going to WAR and want to fight with your Barony the time is now! I do not wish to carry any of you home to your mothers and wives upon your shield. Let the enemies bare that burden for their own! For we are FONTAINE, for we are OUTLANDERS, and the STAG lives forever!!

Lord Lochlan MacCulloch
Knight Marshal

Greetings Unto the Populace of Fontaine dans Sable,

I want to thank everyone who pitched in and sent in an article for the newsletter, especially our exchequer. I would also like to thank our wonderful Mistress of the List. Huzzah to her for she always has a submission for me. This months newsletter looks so much better than last months and it is because of those who sent in an article.

I have reached my one-year mark as Chronicler. Im amazed that is has gone by so fast. Upon this realization I would like to present a challenge, not only to myself but also to the other officers and populace as well. There is an award, The William Blackfox award that is given out for outstanding newsletters. I would like to see our newsletter nominated for this award. This is where the fine populace comes in. I cannot do it on my own. I can add pretty pictures and cool fonts, but I need something to work with. I appreciate all the help you can give me in this challenge.

Yours In Humble Service,
Lady Lasairfhiona inghean an Seanchaidhe

Quartermistress Report

Greetings all. We are now in the off-camping season and the hold will need some rearranging. We managed to get all of the tents and poles into the building. The roof beam and uprights for the pavilion are longer than the building but we got them in kitty-corner and the door shut. If you go into the hold to check something out, please be careful. They won't fall over or on you but they will be in your way.

On another quartermaster topic, I am looking for a deputy for my office. I have held this office for over two years now and would like to share my knowledge. It is really not a difficult task. (You do have to keep an eye on the building, make sure it doesn't run away and report; ^ it's still there.) If you are interested, please talk to me or Lady Julianne. You will also have to submit a letter of intent.

*Yours in Service,
Lady Anna Katherine von Teltge*

Largesse Guild

The Largesse Guild is a group of members of the Barony who like to make stuff. That stuff is what is given away by our Baron and Baroness at events as thank you gifts.

What we make is up to the group.

We've done sewing projects, beaded necklaces, hood and coifs too. Anything small that we can make is a good project.

We are always looking for new ideas for Largesse so if you have one.....

Please tell us about it.

Also, if you are in need of trim for a new 12th Night garment, we will be holding a trim sale at Toy Box. The prices are always real good and the trim is first quality. So save a couple of dollars for November 22 and Toy Box.

Greetings unto Fontaine!

It seems like the past year has flown by quicker than a hawk chasing a rabbit. But, here we are at November and the drums of Estrella are beginning to beat. If you listen carefully you can hear the call to WAR! All fighter practices and tournaments from now until February, will be designed to increase your strength and skill before the Outlands march on the fields of Adenvelt. Watch the List carefully for times and locations of upcoming practices. We must prepare for the upcoming battles to once again claim victory!

The Farmington Renaissance Faire was a wonderful success. There were many contacts made with the general population of our area and many questions answered. I would like to thank any and all who helped at the Faire this year. The coverage in the information tent was more than I could have asked for. I will not list names as I do not want to slight someone by forgetting. But, you know whom you are that helped, and know that I truly appreciate your service in this area. By rough count, we gave out at least 150 of our informational brochures.

The Fight-A-Knight and auctions of our fighters at the Faire, raised over $400 for our chosen charity this year – the Blue Star Mothers. At our annual Toy Box Event on November 22nd, we will add to this dollar amount and present all to the representatives of the Blue Star Mothers.

I have made initial contact with the Aztec Fantasy of Lights to host an evening with them. At the time of this writing I do not have a date for our participation, but as soon as I do, I will place the announcement on the Fontaine List.

So, in closing, remember that we are less than 100 days until WAR. Increase your endurance and strength, sharpen your swords, arrows and spears, polish and repair your armor, and prepare for the upcoming battles!

*In Service to the Dream,
Lady Elyenora Danyel de la Roche
Chatelaine and Mistress of the List*
